Gin

Roku Gin, Japan

Roku is Japanese for "Six" which refers to the six Japanese botanicals used. Cherry blossoms, cherry leaves, sencha, gyokuro, sanshō pepper & yuzu are utilized along with eight other traditional gin botanicals
Recommended to be served with tonic & ginger

Teddy + The Fox Gin, Drysdale $18

A delicious + local gin which is an aromatic blend of 6 botanicals; juniper, coriander, orange, lemon myrtle, orris root and star anise. It has strong citrus characteristics with orange and lemon myrtle coming to the fore.
Recommended to be served with a slice of orange + a sprig of rosemary

Four Pillars 'Bloody Shiraz' Gin $20

Each year Four Pillars steeps Yarra Valley Shiraz grapes in gin for eight weeks prior to pressing and blending with Rare Dry Gin. Flavour-wise, the 2018 vintage it's showing dark fruit, red berry and spice. There is also some classic Yarra Shiraz white pepper, but of course a lovely ginny character carries those grape aromas, making it unmistakably gin. The palate is lovely and sweet, with long juniper and spice characters to finish.
Recommended to be served over ice with a wedge of orange or lemon. If mixing with Tonic, orange is preferable.
